Education and Licensing

December 2009 – California Board of Behavioral Sciences, Marriage and Family Therapist License #MFC-47971, current and in good standing, expires 9/30/11.

March 2007 - John F. Kennedy University, MA in Counseling Psychology, Specialization in Somatic (Body Oriented) Psychology

June 1985 - Indiana University, BS in Personnel Management and Labor Relations

Clinical Experience

January 2010 – present – Touchstone Counseling Services, Inc., Pleasant Hill, CA

Private Practice Marriage and Family Therapist (MFT) – Continuing my practice, I specialize in clients who have many types of eating disorders and self-care dysfunction including: emotional eating, binge eating, not being able to follow medical advice about eating, and exercise resistance. I also continue to work with trauma and PTSD, chronic pain and chronic illness, domestic violence, and substance abuse recovery. I am currently developing a specialty in working with mild traumatic brain injury and other cognitive losses.

February 2010 – present – Casa Serena Eating Disorders Program, Concord, CA

Program Staff/Marriage and Family Therapist (MFT) Group Facilitator – Lead groups in Living Skills, Meals, and Body Awareness in this intensive outpatient program (IOP) for eating disorders for adults. As part of staff, participate in collaborative treatment planning for clients in milieu setting. Clients typically stay in program 10-14 weeks. Also assist in planning and presenting summer program for teens.

March 2008 – December 2009 – Touchstone Counseling Services, Inc., Pleasant Hill, CA

MFT Intern – Practiced marriage and family therapy with adults, adolescents, and children in both individual and family sessions. Primary clinical focus was on women who have experienced repeated trauma including childhood abuse and domestic violence in their adult relationships. Most clients were either in recovery for substance abuse or were directly impacted by a family member's substance use. Also led a variety of groups on topics such as eating disorders and parenting skills.

August 2005 – June 2008 - New Pathways Counseling, Inc., A Program of Catholic Social Service Solano, Vallejo, CA

Experience included:

* MFT Trainee – August 2005 to May 2007

* MFT Intern – May 2007 to June 2008

Clinic Therapist – Saw clients from diverse populations in a clinic setting. Issues included trauma, depression, aging, addiction, grief, eating disorders, and victims of crime. Worked with clients individually, as families, and couples. For 1 ½ years, worked independently at off-site clinic as well as at main clinic.

School Counselor – Served as school counselor for approximately 400 students at a parochial school: grades preschool, kindergarten, and 1st through 8th grades. Counseled students on many issues including social skills, anger management, conflict resolution, grief, anxiety, abuse, academic problems, and behavioral issues. Also worked with teachers and parents to find additional resources and referrals.

Group Counseling – Facilitated groups on parenting skills in a court-ordered group.

Intakes – Conducted telephone and in-person intakes of both clinic clients and candidates for court-ordered programs on parenting, anger management, and domestic violence.
